

An abstract geometric pattern consisting of several yellow lines of varying lengths and orientations. The lines form a series of interconnected, irregular shapes, some resembling elongated triangles or polygons. The pattern is set against a plain white background. The lines are thin and have a slightly hand-drawn or digital-art quality. The overall composition is minimalist and modern.