The PARTIES likewise agree that receipt of the CLIENT'S approval of a proposed SUBCONTRACTOR by the CONTRACTOR renders the amendment of Annex 9 hereto valid and replaces the previous version thereof. The CLIENT commits to report its agreement or disagreement to the CONTRACTOR within 5 working days from submission of the complete request or submission of the documents specified in Subsection 4 herein by the CONTRACTOR to the CLIENT, whichever occurs first.

5. If a change is made to a SUBCONTRACTOR used by the CONTRACTOR as another party for the purposes of fulfilling the eligibility conditions of technical and professional competence under the PUBLIC PROCUREMENT ACT within the tender procedure resulting in the conclusion hereof ("TENDER"), the CONTRACTOR shall demonstrate that such new SUBCONTRACTOR fulfils the same eligibility conditions as the original SUBCONTRACTOR within the TENDER and in the manner and scope required in the TENDER; for such purposes, the CONTRACTOR shall provide the CLIENT with the corresponding records and documents together with the written request for approval to use this SUBCONTRACTOR under Subsection 3 herein.
6. The CONTRACTOR is liable to the CLIENT for the work delivered or performed by SUBCONTRACTORS and for any other activities hereunder. Any relevant obligations concerning the CONTRACTOR as specified herein apply in kind to relevant

SUBCONTRACTORS. The CLIENT'S right to approve SUBCONTRACTORS does not relieve the CONTRACTOR of its responsibility for the quality of the provided work or deliveries, or for damages caused to the CLIENT.

7. When a SUBCONTRACTOR conducts work and/or deliveries, the CLIENT maintains the same command and control authority with respect to the SUBCONTRACTOR as given towards the CONTRACTOR herein.
